

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, For the eleventh year, young men and women from Tamagawa University in Tokyo, Japan, are visiting our great state; and,

WHEREAS, These young men and women have come to Madison, South Dakota, to study at Dakota State University; and,

WHEREAS, The people of South Dakota are proud to have these young men and women taken an interest in our state; and,

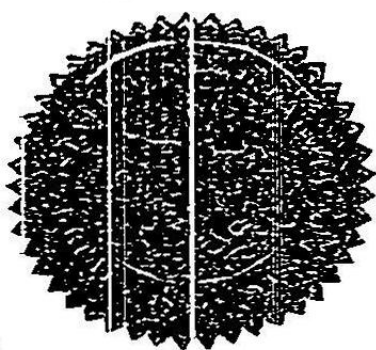

WHEREAS, The people of Madison are celebrating the visit of the students from Japan with a picnic, welcoming them to Madison on July 25; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper that the Governor make note of the visit of the Japanese students to our state:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. KICKELSON, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 25, 1990, as in South Dakota, and I urge our citizens to join me in wishing the Japanese students an enjoyable and educational visit to our state.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Sixth Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety

GEORGE S. KICKELSON, GOVERNOR
